Berlin, Oct. 27. N. S.

ON the Fourteenth Inſtant a French Abbot arriv'd here from Hanover, and went from hence the Friday following to Dantzick. On the Twenty-third, in the Evening, General Fleming came hither from the Camp before Stralſund. He ſaw no one of the Court, nor made any Stay here, but departed immediately from hence, in order to wait on his Czariſh Majeſty at Torgow. The next Morning Monſieur Wibe, one of the King of Denmark's Privy-Council, arriv'd here likewiſe from Pomerania, together with Baron Schack his Daniſh Majeſty's Envoy to the King of Poland, Monſieur Marſhall the Pruſſian Envoy to the ſaid Prince, and Monſieur Manteuffel, the King of Poland's Miniſter at this Court. Monſieur Wibe was introduced to his Majeſty the ſame Morning, and went from hence in the Afternoon with Baron Schack, both thoſe Miniſters having receiv'd Orders from his Daniſh Majeſty, to attend likewiſe on the Czar of Muſcovy. They write from the Camp before Stralſund, That, according to the Report of ſeveral Deſerters, Proviſions begin to grow exceeding ſcarce in that Place. This Conſideration, and the Difficulties the Suedes will find in throwing any Supplies into the Town, give the Allies a promiſing Proſpect of Succeſs in their Attempts againſt it, notwithſtanding the Inconveniences of the Seaſon, which is already far advanced. The Daniſh Train of Artillery being arriv'd at a Place near Grypeſwald, the King of Poland made a Preſent of ſix of his fineſt Horſes, richly harneſs'd, to General Scholten, who firſt ſent his Majeſty Advice of it. Theſe Letters add, That that Prince had receiv'd an Expreſs from the Crown-General, importing, that the Grand Signior has acknowledg'd his Majeſty for lawful King of Poland; for which News it is expected that all the Artillery in the Camp will be diſcharged. The Suedes have had ſeveral ſmall Frigats cruiſing off Stralſund, in order to preſerve a Communication with that City, and the Iſle of Rugen; but it is thought the Arrival of the Daniſh Fleet on that Coaſt will ſoon deſtroy the ſaid Communication between thoſe two Places.

Frankfort, Octob. 28. N. S. The Elector of Mayence left this Place on the Twenty-fifth Inſtant, and will not return hither till his Imperial Majeſty has fix'd the Day for his Coronation at this Place. The Elector Palatin is gone from hence to Swetzingen, a ſmall Town about three Leagues from Heidelberg; the Elector of Treves is likewiſe remov'd to the ſame Place, and it is believ'd both thoſe Princes will continue there the greateſt part of the Hunting Seaſon. They write from Spire, that the Army of the Enemy began to ſeparate, in order to march into their Winter-Quarters. They have ſix or ſeven thouſand Men in Alſace, where we hear they are to be Quarter'd this Winter. The Mareſchal d' Harcourt is already gone from the Army, and is ſet out for the French Court, whither he is likewiſe follow'd by the Mareſchal de Bezons, who has left the Forces to the Command of the Count de Bourg. Signior Albani, the Pope's Nephew, return'd hither ſome time ſince from Swetzingen, where he has been to confer with the Elector Palatin. Immediately upon his Arrival here, he was viſited by the Plenipotentiaries of Saxony and Bohemia, ſoon after which he ſet out for Cologn; from whence we are adviſ'd, that he ſtaid but one Night there, having receiv'd an Expreſs from the Pope, requiring him to return without delay to Rome. Count Kinski, Vicechancellor of Bohemia, and the ſecond Plenipotentiary for that Kingdom, is gone from hence to Spire; and moſt of the other Miniſters, that aſſiſted here at the late Election, have likewiſe left this Place, but propoſe to be preſent at the Coronation of the new Emperor; and it is expected, that upon the Return of the Expreſs ſent lately from hence to his Imperial Majeſty, we ſhall know what Day is appointed for the Performance of that Solemnity. They write from Dreſden, that the Hereditary Prince of Muſcovy was Marry'd to the young Princeſs of Wolfenbuttel, on the Twenty-fifth Inſtant at Torgow, from which Place his Czariſh Majeſty is preparing to depart, in order to return into his own Dominions.

Briſtol, November 5. Yeſterday came in the St. Francis, of and from the Groin, in thirty Days, and brought over with him Captain Joſeph Ruddock, Commander of the Alexander Frigat of this Port, who was Taken by a Dunkirk Privateer of thirty Guns, in his Paſſage from Kinſale to Lisbon, laden with Corn, and carried into the Groin. Captain Ruddock himſelf was Wounded, as were likewiſe ſeveral of his Men, and two were Kill'd. The Privateer had thirteen Men Kill'd, and ſeventeen Wounded. Her Majeſty's Ships the Haſtings and Lizard, are in Kingroad, with ſeveral Outward-bound Merchant-men.

Hampton-Court, November 6. Monſieur Lieth, Enyoy Extraordinary from the Czar of Muſcovy, had this Day his firſt private Audience of Her Majeſty; to which he was introduc'd by the Right Honorable Henry St. John Eſq; One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrel, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

The Mails from Holland are not yet arriv'd.
